
Elegance
in 3D
Vase edition

Monde

"French for 'world'. Simple, chic, and expansive"

Calla

"Named after the elegant, curved lines of a Calla Lily"

Drift

"A natural, shifting movement"

Zenith

"An astronomical term for the 'highest' point"

Antiquity

"A nod to the Greek 'Pithos' or storage jar, modernized for today"

Lyra

"After the harp with sharp lines visualizing strings waiting to be played"

Rhythm

"Visual beat created by the repeating interlocking shapes"

Amphora

"Named after the ancient Greek container similar in shape"

Pirouette

"Named after the ballet turn, capturing the graceful spinning motion of the fluting"

Tulle

"Delicate, layered fabric, fitting for the light and airy silhouette"

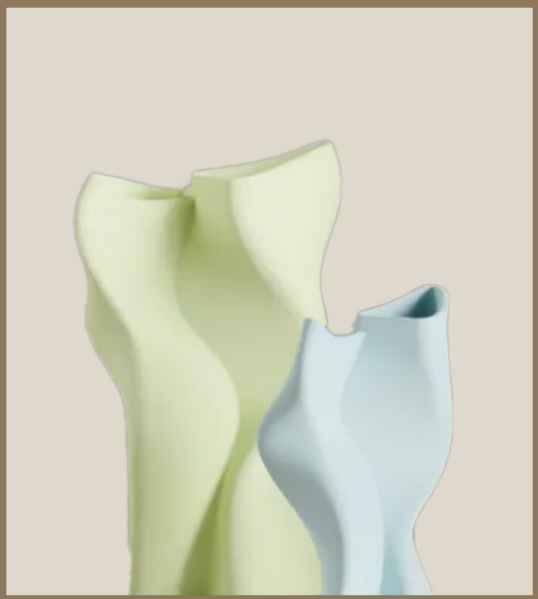

Meridian

"A perfect balance between two states"

Cadence

"A rhythmic sequence, making it sound like a curated gallery piece"

Symbiosis

"The balance between two halves that rely on each other"

Pangolin

"Named after the unique, scale-covered animal"

Ignis

"Ignis is Latin for fire, fitting for the flickering light effect on the metallic ridges"

Brio

"An Italian musical term meaning 'vigor' or 'vivacity', perfect for this energetic shape"

Flora

"A direct nod to its petal-like layers and natural symmetry"